Victoria started working in M&ER in September 2007 as a Personal Enquiry Assistant. Victoria is responsible for answering the freephone telephone and sending prospectuses to Schools and Prospective students. She is also responsible for the quick response of emails in the Marketing and Study inboxes and also making sure they have receive all the information requested by contacting them two weeks later. With the help of their line manage Victoria and Amy are looking at ways to improve relations with prospective students from their first point of contact with us to making their UCAS choice.
